believe, well known to the authorities may be dealt with as they deserve.

So far the Tsar's peace proposals do not appear to have been taken in earnest by the Powers of Europe. Since the issue of the note England and France have been upon the verge of war with another and even now are both placing their forces upon a war footing. Instead of seeking means of reducing their armaments the European Powers are busily furnishing up their arms and making sure that everything is complete in their military and naval equipments, even to the last gaiter button. There is unrest everywhere and the situation may be compared to an immense sea-saw, evenly poised and needing but the slightest push to set it in motion. On either end of the beam sit the Powers of Europe, each pondering as to whether or no she occupies the proper end, while in the centre, for the moment, stands the United States refusing to say to which end of the beam she intends to make her way, and thus keeping the whole of the Powers in a state of trepidation to know whether they are to go up or down.

AN EXTRADITION CASE.

ACCUSED HAD A REBELLIOUS PROJECT.

At the Magistracy this afternoon, the case of the Chinese named Chung Shih Chai, whom the Chinese authorities wish to get hold of, on the ground that he was once a band of robbers who ransacked a shop at Cha Tan Kok in the Sun On district on the 16th October at 3.30 p.m. again came up.

Mr. Robinson appeared on behalf of the Chinese Government for the prosecution and Mr. Gedge for the defence.

Another witness was called for the prosecution who identified defendant as being one of the band of robbers.

Rev. J. C. Leach, pastor of the Bible Mission of Long Han (called by the defence) said that the distance between his village and Hongkong was quite an hour's walk. Cha Tan Kok was about 100 miles from his village.

Rev. W. R. Kutter, a missionary connected with the Bible Mission, said he knew the defendant. His name was Chung Shih Chai. He saw him last on 16th October between 3 and 6 at his house at Wong Lung, Wai-shing, saying he was going to see him to raise a rebellion against the Emperor of China. Therefore, he knew that this man was a band of robbers and that he was going to see him to raise a rebellion against the Emperor of China. He was not to be taken for granted that defendant was at Cha Tan Kok that day.

FOOTBALL.

ON SATURDAY before a large attendance of spectators, a week team of the Hongkong F. Club met B. Co. of the King's Own. The soldiers had the best of the play but neither side gave a good exhibition. At half time the score stood 0-0 to all in favour of B. Co. and each team scored one in the second half, the game being a draw. The soldiers were in the lead but were not fully represented as several of their most effective men were away in Shanghai. The V. R. Co. were weakly represented.

The game was not particularly high class but was nevertheless very enjoyable. The Recreation men had the upper hand throughout but shot weakly evidently being afraid of losing the ball. They scored one in each half and won by two goals to one.

Cameron, Dickson, Blake, Bailey and Grimshaw played well for Tainan but none of the V. R. Co. men showed particular form.
